SPECIAL NOTICE TO TEACHERS AND PARENTS

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO YOUTH CONCERT BRITTEN'S ST. NICOLAS

The Faculty of Music is pleased to announce a special youth concert performance of Benjamin Britten's St. Nicolas to be performed by Canadian tenor, Glyn Evans, the University Symphony Orchestra and Chorus and the Claude Watson School for the Arts elementary choir. The concert will be conducted by Doreen Rao, Professor of Music Education and Director of Choral Programs. This University of Toronto Youth Concert is scheduled for Thursday, November 30 at 12:00 Noon. Admission is free, but reservations are required. Please call Joanne Harada at 978-5772.

The format of this Youth Concert will include an introduction to the story of St. Nicolas, friend of children and sailors. Students in the audience will have the opportunity to sing along and they will be encouraged to do so by our undergraduate music education students eagerly awaiting to meet "real kids." The presentation will be geared to elementary and high school age students.

My students and I look forward to the opportunity of meeting you, and we hope your students will enjoy this special event we have planned for them.

DOREEN RAO,
PROFESSOR OF MUSIC
DIRECTOR OF CHORAL PROGRAMS
